DOYLES WERE VICTORIOUS

Rooter Jack Covers Himself With Glory in Holiday Game.

Holiday baseball at the ball park started yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock with a game between the Bulldogs and the Mercantiles, both of the Newspaper League.

It was expected that the Towlers would have a walkover but such proved not to be the case.

The Vealies played up spunkily and it took ten innings before the Band of Hoppers were declared victorious by the score of 13 to 12.

At 1:30 p. m. another game of the Newspaper League took place, this time between the Advertisers and the Stars. The Advertisers carried altogether too many guns for their opponents and won by the score of 15 to 5. They could have won by 60 to 5 had they so elected.

At 3:30 p. m., with the band playing "Peace, Perfect Peace in this Dark World of Sin," two nines captained by Eddie Beau Brummel Fernandez and Jack Doyle, took the diamond and proceeded to give the somewhat attenuated crowd present their money's worth.

The captains at the start were Fernandez and Bill Vannatta. The Fernandez crowd made one in the first. This, by the way, was all they made.

At the commencement of the third innings Jack Doyle took command of the Vannattas and after invoking some unholy kahunaism proceeded to lay the peel of a banana on the first bag.

The kahuna worked like a charm and brought five men home in that inning.

Thereafter the Doyle's had matters all their own way, monopolizing the scoring and winning by 8 runs to 1.

The star play of the day was made by Bruno who presided in the Doyle's left garden.

Fernandez made a long hit and Bruno returned the ball so quickly to first that the dapper Eddie was put out.

The Fernandez crowd were evidently lashed but must be given credit for doing their best. What can be expected, anyway, on Kamehameha Day, even of a baseball team?

The personnel of the teams follows: Doyle's Nine—Sheldon, McKenzie, Chillingworth, Bruno, Aylett, Davis, Vannatta, G. Bruno, Lota. Fernandez's Nine—Olmos, Fernandez, Evers, Joy, Kila, Henderson, Leslie, En Gee, Lemon.

Score by innings: 123456789
Doyle's Nine.....005002010-8
Fernandez's Nine.....100000000-1
Owing to the presence of the official scorer at a luncheon it is impossible to present complete statistics of the game.

ALIOLANIS WIN.

The Junior Intercollegiate Baseball League game played at Makiki yesterday morning between the Aliolani and Mills' Institute, resulted in a win for the former by the score of 12 to 3.

It is to be supposed that a 300-pound man enjoys himself hugely.

DOG MATTERS OF HAWAII NEI

Coast Sporting Journal Has Comments of Local Interest.

The Breeder and Sportsman, which devotes a good deal of space to dog and gun matters in Hawaii, has the following notice of Jack Bradshaw, who judged the last show of the Hawaiian Kennel Club:

"For smug prevarication and egotistical self-presentation of a bunch of hot-air wild flowers the following by 'Wayfarer,' referring to the Seattle show, is about the best in its peculiar line:

"No one dreamed of such an entry and of course, naturally enough, they began to look for the cause, when one bright individual said: 'Look who's here,' pointing to the judge, which caused quite a laugh, but while there was a whole lot of truth in the wit's remark, there's no doubt but that Secretary Bailey's untiring efforts and Judge Bradshaw's popularity were accountable for the large entry. The daily papers were loud in their praises of the judge's awards (something unusual in this neck of the woods: the judge generally gets an awful turning over) and not a kick was recorded."

"As a matter of fact, the Seattle papers were decidedly shy in laudatory notices of Fried Liver Jack, merely perfunctory in mention of his connection with the show. The general indifference was so thorough that self-boasting was an emergency resort. This will not mislead fanciers who are capable of judging for themselves."

"The same paper has the following of interest to local dog fanciers:

"There is no import tax or other bar to the entry of dogs at Honolulu for the coming bench show in the island metropolis. Dogs, as well as other animals, are, however, examined before landing, to prevent the possibility of the introduction of contagious diseases."

"It looks, from recent data, as if the Hawaiian show this year will be a corker. The island fanciers have recently secured a number of good dogs of various breeds; enthusiasm and interest in the doggy cult are apparently on a strong upward tendency."

"Hilo Kennels recently had a very acceptable addition in the shape of a strong, handsome, all-white litter of eight bull terrier puppies out of Englewood Blossom, erstwhile W. C. Bogen's winning bitch on the Coast circuit. The sire is Chester Valley Captain, a son of Ch Queensbury Bowsline."

"Mr. Medcalf's fancy is not confined entirely to the white 'uns. He is the owner of some Alredales that have already aroused much interest on the part of fanciers of the 'all round dog.' Six or eight of the dogs are as well known on the country roads of the island as their owner is on Hilo 'Change during business hours. Clonmel Monarch, Master Briar, New King and other stars of the Alredale galaxy are represented in the Hilo Kennels by some of their best progeny."

AALA NOTES

Next Sunday's baseball games will be Japanese A. C. vs. Palamas, and the Chinese A. C. vs. the Chinese Alohas. Maesaka made one of the prettiest catches of the season last Sunday in the game against the Chinese A. C.

W. Tin Chong will retire as secretary of the Riverside League at its next regular meeting.

Makani will go down in history as the first batter of the Aala League who ever batted a ball across the stream. He did the trick last Sunday, but it was a foul ball.

Hong Chack has joined in Ever's class for one-handed catches. He pulled in a "beaut" in the game against the Nippons.

J. Kaimi will twirl for the Chinese Alohas next Sunday.

Ed. Marino, Jr., the former vice president of the Riverside League, is again in town.

The Tong Ho "hard times" dance has been changed to a "good times" dance by the Chinese Aloha Club, July 3 will be the date for this grand affair.

Manager K. Yasumori of the Banzai team had all the luck against him last Sunday. Two of his star players were laid up by illness.

Bernard Kelekolio and A. K. Vierra, prominent personages of the Riverside League, will have a public debate on "bleachers" in the near future. One will speak against and the other in favor of bleachers at Aala Park.

The Chinese A. C. vs. Alohas game scheduled for next Sunday will attract a big crowd. Chinatown is sure to be there in force.

The famous stallion Waldstein (2:22 1-2) died at St. Louis Obispo.

SCORES IN PRIZE SHOOT

The Spaldings Figure in the Money Several Times.

The semiannual shoot of the Hawaiian Gun Club, held at the Kakaako traps yesterday, was a very successful affair.

Shooting started at 10 a. m., and there was a very representative crowd present.

At times the shooting was up to the standard, but on the whole the scores were not as good as usual, owing to a strong and irregular wind which came up during the forenoon. In the afternoon, however, the scores picked up, and some exceptionally good shooting was done.

The free lunch, a new feature of the club, was greatly enjoyed.

William Charlock acted as referee, and gave his usual quick and accurate decisions, which, without exception, were unquestioned. Charlock is without a doubt one of the best trap referees in the Territory.

The fifth event, the class shooting match, was hard on some of the competitors, particularly K. B. Porter, who, after making 31 out of 33, lost in the shoot-off, failing to win a prize in this event.

SUMMARY.

Twenty-bird handicap, known angles—P. B. Damon, 19 out of 20; I. Spalding, 19 out of 21; E. I. Spalding, 18 out of 26; H. M. Whitney, 17 out of 24.

Ten birds, known angles, scratch (for visitors)—George Macy, 7 out of 10; A. Lucas, 7 out of 10.

Ten birds, unknown angles and traps (walking)—E. I. Spalding, 7 out of 10; D. L. Austin, 6 out of 10; I. Spalding, 6 out of 10. The shoot-off for second place was won by Austin with 4 out of 5.

Ten birds, unknown angles, from No. 3 trap (Walker Cup)—I. Spalding, 9 out of 10; H. M. Whitney, 9 out of 10; J. W. Harvey, 8 out of 10.

Twenty-bird handicap, known angles (class shooting)—E. I. Spalding, 20 out of 26; D. L. Austin, 19 out of 20; I. Spalding, 18 out of 21; H. M. Whitney, 15 out of 24.

Twenty-bird handicap, known angles (free-for-all)—Joe Tavas, 20 out of 28; I. Spalding, 20 out of 21; E. I. Spalding, 19 out of 26; D. L. Austin, 18 out of 20.

Fifty-bird, known angles, scratch (consolation)—K. B. Porter, 43 out of 50; J. W. Harvey, 40 out of 50.

Trotters and Pacers

Todd (2:14 3-4) is dead. The great pacing mare The Broncho (2:00 3-4) has foaled a bay colt by the stallion Willie Benton (2:06 3-4).

Word comes that the trotting stallion Potrero, recently shipped from here to Hilo, was injured in transit.

William Helman, the well-known Sonoma County horseman, is dead.

Lord Lovelace is the only horse, either trotter or pacer, to have been bred, raised, trained and raced to a record of 2:10 in Oregon.

The $50,000 trotting handicaps closed with 125 entries, including the California bred Sweet Marie (2:02), Sonoma Girl (2:05 1-4), Highball (2:06 1-4) and Mack Mack (2:08).

Sonoma Girl (2:05 1-4) has developed another splint.

Fred S. Shaft, owner of Sherlock Holmes (2:06), dropped dead in Spokane.

The old brood mare Concha is dead. W. G. Durfee has shipped his string of fourteen head of trotters and pacers to Wheaton, Ill.

SAME HORSES

MATCHED AGAIN

There will be a match race tomorrow afternoon at Kapiolani Park between Makaala and Leahi Girl at a quarter of a mile. E. H. Lewis is making the match for Leahi Girl.

A week from Saturday the same two horses will race at the same distance, with Ben Hollinger putting up for Leahi Girl.

GOSSIP OF THE TWIRLERS

Something of Men Who Will Pitch in Triangular Series.

Now that the date of arrival of the visiting ball teams from the East and the West is fast approaching, the enthusiasts are getting keen in anticipation of one long round of jolly festivities and clean sport. Knowing, as is known in Honolulu, what it means to import a team of fast men, the local officials have taken an extra long chance this year, in importing two teams instead of one, in order that the wishes of the lovers of the game in these islands may be gratified.

From late news by cable from the Far East it is learned that the Japanese students are doing things to a team from the U. S. Navy now stationed in the Orient, a team supposed to represent the pick of the ball teams of the entire squadron, while according to newspaper files received by the S. S. China, Santa Clara College has just closed a season of baseball never before equaled in the history of the institution.

Joe Nealon, who played first base for the "All-Star Spaldings," and who has starred for three years as Pittsburgh's highest salaried man, writes: "These boys can certainly go some when it comes to handling the ball, and their batting ability and the manner in which they handle themselves on bases is certainly a revelation to us oldtimers who are doing it for a living."

With such reports creeping in it kind of makes the local boys sit up and take notice. The Diamond Heads expect to play Leslie in the box during this season. Quite a little work is needed to put this youngster in form, as from his appearance last Saturday it is readily seen that he has far too much steam, with no control.

Barney Joy is slated to do the driving for the Saints. It is hard to get a line on Barney at this time, as he has yet to step in the box this season, but according to the wise ones, Barney will be there with a few new ones to unwind.

Reuter, it is expected, will be in proper form to take care of his end of it for the Kams. His work at the beginning of the present series was not just up to the mark, but during the last two games he has certainly shown a deal of improvement.

Hampton will deliver the goods for the Panahous, not because the Colts can't raise anyone else, but because Hampton, in the opinion of many of the fans, is better able to take care of himself than any of the other above-named twirlers.

Hampton is certainly the "candy kid" when it comes to tight corners, knowing how to use his head at the right time, as he demonstrated on more than one occasion during last Saturday's game.

From the present outlook it is evident that this series of baseball will be the biggest attraction these islands have ever had in the sporting line.

KETCHELL TO FIGHT HEAVIES

Stanley Ketchell is finding it hard to make middleweight. He was recently reported to be looking as big as a house and there is little doubt that he will soon be able to fight in the heavyweight ranks if he keeps on growing at the present rate.

Ketchell seems to be a fighter who is absolutely confident of himself.

"I can whip any middleweight in the world," is the way he sizes up the situation. "Just one or two more fights for me as a middleweight, and then I will leave the class, fight heavies and go after Burns. Why not? He was a middleweight also and fought heavies, and so shall I."

ORPHEUM THEATRE.

There will be an entire change in the program of pictures and illustrated songs at the Orpheum tonight and the pictures will be better than ever. The focus of the machine at this theater eliminates the wiggles and the pictures are more enjoyable in consequence. The admission to the Orpheum continues at ten cents.

MAKAALA WON TWICE

Four Horse Races Pleased the Crowd at Kapiolani Park.

Seven or eight hundred spectators went to Kapiolani Park yesterday afternoon to take in a program of match races which had been arranged for the sake of keeping alive the turf traditions of Kamehameha Day.

While the racing was nothing extra, the races were of an interesting nature, and those who journeyed to the track spent an enjoyable afternoon.

The first event was a quarter of a mile dash between the Leahi Dairy's Leahi Girl, ridden by young Hollinger, and F. J. Rodriguez' Makaala, ridden by Jimmy Holt.

Last Saturday Makaala had beaten the mare at the same distance with Willis up, and yesterday the Girl ruled a firm favorite at 10 to 8.

The first start was a false one, both horses running to the wire, with the black a dozen lengths to the good.

When they finally got away a ding-dong race ensued and Makaala won in a drive by a length. Time, 0:26 1-5.

It appears that Makaala was just up from the pasture when he raced last Saturday. Also yesterday he had a much lighter weight to carry. Willis scaled 110 pounds and little Holt only 75 pounds.

The second race was a quarter mile dash between Judge Andrade's Bazaar II, ridden by Holt; E. H. Lewis' Shamrock, ridden by Hollinger, and M. Abreu's Nuanuu Valley, ridden by Ah Hoon.

Bazaar won by three lengths, with Shamrock finishing nine lengths ahead of the third starter. The time was 0:24 2-5.

Next on the card was a five-eighths dash between Jimmy Holt's Welsh pony, a Japanese-owned horse named Togo, and Ah Chow's Li Hung Chang.

Li Hung Chang led by a narrow margin all the way and won by half a length, with Togo beaten off. No time was taken.

The afternoon's sport wound up with another quarter of a mile dash between Makaala and Leahi Girl, with the same riders as in the opening race of the day.

Makaala won by three lengths in 0:27, showing that the first race was no fluke.

There was a deal of desultory talk of future races; indeed, everyone in the crowd seemed to have something which he wanted to match, from a temble race to a climb up Diamond Head.

Short and Sweet

Domingo Ferreira was seen at the track yesterday and looked familiar.

Makaala will be shipped to Maui in three weeks and will be raced there by A. Enos.

John Hopper was out at the races yesterday in a swell rig. John is prosperous these days and beside working at his trade of stevedore is breaking horses with results satisfactory to himself and patrons.

Tom Quinn made another record on Wednesday night. By the light of the moon he drove his Buick with four passengers from Haleiwa to town in 1:10, the previous best record for the run being 1:15. Tom intends to enter his car in any speed contests for automobiles which may be held here in the future and believes that he can hold his own with any of them.

HUTCHINSON IS GOLF WINNER

A large number of golfers participated in the medal play on the Country Club links yesterday.

The weather was ideal for golfing and the sport was of a keen and most enjoyable nature.

A large number of guests were present and partook of a bountiful lunch provided by the club.

First prize fell to Dr. Hutchinson with a net score of 75.

T. Gill and C. Weight tied for second prize with scores of 82.

It takes push, even to trundle a wheelbarrow.

At a track meet recently it is said that a boy was spurred on to win a running race by his friends yelling: "Look out! Here comes her father."

Robert E. Peary is trying to raise more North Pole money. He needs a cool fifty thousand.

There is some talk of a pie-eating contest between the local newboys. Two teams may compete under the names of the Elephant Ears and the Open Mugs. The date when they will cross ples has not yet been decided.

Honolulu Girl came in third in a race at Louisville recently. That thoroughbred has no right to the name. Honolulu girls get there first, always. (Can't you hear them saying, "Isn't he nice?")

TERRIBLE TERRY BACK TO LIFE

PHILADELPHIA, May 16.—Terry McGovern of Brooklyn is still a great fighter. Before the National Athletic Club here tonight he gave Young Loughrey a fearful beating. Young Corbett was right when he predicted that the little Brooklyn whirlwind had recovered his punch. He fought like the old Terry; he took a stand like the old Terry and he was the same old Terry, save that he looked a little too well fed. Loughrey, in his usual bulldog fashion, camped on the Brooklyn boy and the harder he was hit the colder in the second with a terrific right swing, flush upon the jaw. He got up with blood trickling down the side of his face and went after Terry again. The little ex-champion tore after his man with the rush of oldtime days.

"Bang, bang," again, and Loughrey went down again, this time pulling McGovern with him. They landed in a heap on the floor. McGovern was up first, smiling all over. Loughrey's corner looked like an Indian war camp. Joe Humphreys and his
